January 13
Strangers in Time
by David Baldacci

Fourteen-year-old Charlie Matters is up to no good without parents, living day-to-day until he's old enough to enlist to fight the Germans. Fifteen-year-old Molly Wakefield has been away from her parents-from her home-for nearly five years. Mourning the recent loss of his wife, Ignatius forms a kinship with both children, and in each other they rediscover the spirit of family.

February 10
The Woman in Suite 11
by Ruth Ware

Lo Blacklock is ready to reestablish her journalism career, she hopes she can snag an interview with elusive billionaire, Marcus. Unfortunately, he proves to be even more difficult to pin down than his reputation suggests. When Lo gets a late-night call asking her to come to Marcus's hotel room, she's greeted, by a woman claiming to be Marcus's mistress, and in life-or-death jeopardy.

March 10 Don't Let Him In
by Lisa Jewell

Nick Radcliffe is just what Nina Swann needed in her life after her husband's unexpected death. But to Nina's adult daughter, Ash, Nick seems too good to be true. What she finds is more than unsettling. Martha is a florist living with her devoted husband Alistair. Alistair has been disappearing for days at a time. Nina, Martha, and Ash are on a collision course with a shocking truth.

April 14
Beautiful Ugly
by Alice Feeney

A year ago Grady Green's wife disappeared. Grady, still overcome with grief, travels to a tiny, remote Scottish island to try and get his life back on track. And then he sees the impossible: a woman who looks exactly like his missing wife.

May 12
We All Live Here
by Jojo Moyes

Lila Kennedy has a lot on her plate. A broken marriage, two wayward daughters, and an elderly stepfather who seems to have quietly moved in. Her career is in freefall and her love life is complicated. So, when her real dad-suddenly appears on her doorstep, it feels like the final straw. But it turns out even the family you thought you could never forgive might have something to teach you: about love, and what it actually means to be family.

June 9
Three Days in June
by Anne Tyler

Gail Baines is long divorced from her husband, Max, and not close to her grown daughter, Debbie. Today is the day before Debbie's wedding. To start, Gail loses her job-or quits, depending who you ask. Then, Max arrives unannounced on Gail's doorstep, without a place to stay and without even a suit in which to walk their daughter down the aisle. The true crisis lands when Debbie tells her parents a secret she just learned about her husband-to-be.

July 14
Hidden Nature
by Nora Roberts

Recovering from a traumatic wound, police officer Sloan Cooper is trying to get her life back on track. When a woman vanishes, leaving her car behind in a supermarket parking lot, Sloan searches online for similar cases. She finds them, spread across three states. It will take every ounce of endurance to get to the dark heart of this bizarre case--and she's willing to risk her life again if that's what it takes to stop the horror.

August 11
The God of the Woods
by Liz Moore

When Barbara Van Laar is discovered missing from her summer camp bunk one morning in August 1975, it triggers a panicked, terrified search. Barbara isn't just any camper, she's the daughter of the wealthy family who owns the camp. This isn't the first time a Van Laar child has disappeared in this region: Barbara's older brother also went missing 16 years earlier, never to be found. How could this have happened yet again?

September 8
The Emperor of Gladness
by Ocean Vuong

One late summer evening in East Gladness, Connecticut, nineteen-year-old Hai stands on the edge of a bridge in pelting rain, ready to jump, when he hears someone shout across the river. The voice belongs to Grazina, an elderly widow succumbing to dementia, who convinces him to take another path. Bereft and out of options, he quickly becomes her caretaker. Over the course of the year, the unlikely pair develops a life-altering bond.

October 13
Broken Country
By Clare Leslie Hall

Beth and her gentle, kind husband Frank are happily married, but their relationship relies on the past staying buried. But when Beth's brother-in-law shoots a dog going after their sheep, Beth doesn't realize that the gunshot will alter the course of their lives. For the dog belonged to none other than Gabriel Wolfe, the man Beth loved as a teenager--the man who broke her heart years ago.

November 10
The River is Waiting
by Wally Lamb

Corby Ledbetter is struggling. New fatherhood, the loss of his job, and a growing secret addiction have thrown his marriage to his beloved Emily into a tailspin--and that's before he causes the tragedy that tears apart his family. Sentenced to prison, Corby struggles to survive life on the inside, where he witnesses frightful acts of brutality. Buoyed by small acts of kindness and by his mother's enduring faith in him, Corby begins to transcend the boundaries of his confinement.

December 8
My Friends
by Fredrik Backman

Four teenagers form a deep friendship that offers them refuge from troubled home lives and inspires the creation of a mysterious painting. Twenty-five years later, Louisa, a young artist, inherits the artwork and sets out on a journey to uncover its origin. As she pieces together the story behind the painting and its creators Louisa discovers not only their lasting impact on one another but also how art and connection can change lives.
